

Graduate Attributes expected from Indian Medical Graduate graduating from our Institution

Attribute 1: In-depth knowledge & clinical skills

- Graduates have comprehensive subject knowledge and ability to apply the knowledge in practicing medicine.

Attribute 2: Critical thinking and problem solving skills

- Graduates are able to respond to the future challenges based on creative & critical thinking and are able to conduct evidence-based & innovative research.

Attribute 3: Lifelong learner

- Graduates constantly evolve by indulging in new learning and research activities.

Attribute 4: Communication, Teamwork & Leadership readiness

- Graduates can effectively communicate the information & ideas, can collaborate productively, and are able to take up the role of a leader when necessary.

Attribute 5: Ethical, cultural & medico-legal competency

- Graduates are able to respond to the situations ethically, are aware of the medico-legal aspects and act as global citizens.

Attribute 6. Digital literacy

- Graduates are competent to use, learn and work with the digital tools.

Attribute 7. Professionalism

- Graduates conduct themselves with honour, integrity, responsiveness & accountability.

Attribute 8. Self-aware and emotional intelligence

- Graduates can reflect on the situations, & act in the way befitting the role of a doctor.