E-Governance Policy

Statement of Purpose

The policy emphasises on the switch to e-governance in all the activities of the institution.

Policy

The institution shall progressively transform towards becoming a paperless institution. Institution shall implement e-governance in administration, student admission and support, finance, billing and account, academic planning and development, examinations, library and hospital. This is a quality enhancement measure to improve efficiency in administration, reduce wastage of paper, empowerment through easy access, and increase transparency.

Applies to:

All the students, faculty, other staff of the Institution, alumni, parents, patients, etc.
