

Adolescent health awareness talk was conducted by Department of Community Medicine at a higher secondary school Attingal. Postgraduates of Community Medicine and the house surgeons conducted the health talk and addressed various issues concerning adolescent age and clarified the myths in menstruation among adolescent girls.