

Metanoia

Health exhibition 'Metanoia' was organised by Sree Gokulam Medical College in 2017, wherein all the Departments had stalls on awareness about the activities of their departments, awareness about various diseases, methods of treatment and recent advances in the exhibition. It was open to the general public. Biggest beneficiaries were the school children from various surrounding schools. The exhibition also had various entertainment avenues. It was a very well attended and very well appreciated program.

